

YOUR FACES, YOUR PLACES

Are you interested in sharing knowledge of your community and area?

Why not write an entry on what you think has been important to the diverse history and identity of the West Midlands. We welcome pieces with one or more images, accompanied with up to 500 words of text.

Contribute to the Faces and Places online exhibition.

Email your ideas and enquiries to Tess Radcliffe at:
digital.lab@birmingham.gov.uk or phone on 0121 464 1619.
