LOCO-SPOTTING DAYS

British Railways In The 1950's/60's

*7.30pm Wednesday 25th February at
The Benn Hall, Newbold Road, RUGBY, Warks, CV21 2LN*

This new programme of rare archive films remembers a post-war golden age of steam on British Railways when boys crowded the end of station platforms taking engine numbers, 'Railway Roundabout' was compulsive viewing on BBC Children's Television and British Transport Films were screened in schools, encouraging many into a career on the railways. It was the age of the Ian Allan Loco-spotters books when a boy's most prized possession was his Combined volume (costing 10/6d!) and most wanted be engine drivers! So why not bring along a pen and paper, or even your old spotters book and record the numbers of some of those illusive loco's that got away, but can still be seen on historic film footage, for all time!

- * Ian Allan - A Loco-spotting phenomenon!
- * Steam On British Railways - The 1950's British Railways you like to remember!
- * Careers In Nationalised Transport - In the days when boy's could become engine drivers!
- * Loco-Spotters Specials - and Enthusiast's excursions!
- * Steam At Rugby!! - Main line steam at Rugby Midland & Rugby Central stations in the 1950's!
- * Railway Roundabout - The changing scene on British Railways, as seen on BBC Children's Television. Compulsive viewing for all Railway Enthusiasts!
- * Steam Finale - The End of Steam on British Railways in the North West in 1968!
- * Plus much more!!
