THE SECRET RAILWAYS OF NORTH WARWICKSHIRE

Back in the 18th and 19th centuries, in order to move bulk goods to the main line railhead or the canal, the extractive industries built a network of railways and tramways all over our area. Most have never been recorded in detail and some once extensive, but now forgotten, so entirely erased as to have disappeared back into the countryside. This is their story. Fascinating old relics for the steam buff brought back to life.

THE HISTORY OF RIVERSLEY PARK

Nuneaton's finest asset is Riversley Park, and this facility was provided by one of Nuneaton's greatest benefactors, local industrialist, Edward Ferdinand Melly. This is the story of the park from its creation until recent years. In all its moods and changes over a century of service to the public of the town.
